A Fairy Tale Arrival – Benny & the Horse-Drawn Carriage

There is only one Benny.

Benny, our Friesian, can bring the bride to the ceremony by horse and carriage, making for a very special arrival.

After the ceremony, Benny returns for photographs before taking the newly married couple for a short carriage trip through Courtmaccherry with a glass of champagne. It's a lovely chance to have a few quiet minutes together, just the two of you, before returning to your guests and the celebrations.

Benny is very popular, so early booking is recommended.

Price: €500

Civil Ceremonies

Why not marry and celebrate all under one roof?

Courtmacsherry Hotel is fully licensed to hold civil wedding ceremonies. Weather permitting, your ceremony can take place on our front lawn overlooking Courtmacsherry Bay. If the weather is unsuitable, the ceremony will take place indoors in the Cork Tree Restaurant.

Civil Ceremony Fee: €1,200

This covers the ceremony setup and use of either the lawn or the Cork Tree Restaurant as the indoor alternative.

A few things to know:

Weather permitting, civil ceremonies on the front lawn can accommodate up to 140 seated guests. For indoor civil ceremonies, the Cork Tree Restaurant can accommodate up to 95 seated guests, with space for a further 15–20 guests standing in the adjoining hall, depending on the setup.

Application must be made directly to the HSE Civil Registration Office – the hotel cannot apply on your behalf.

A minimum of three months' notice is required; we recommend applying as early as possible.

Couples arrange their own registrar/celebrant, florist and ceremony décor.

Outdoor ceremonies are always weather permitting.

Ceremonies on the Lawn

Canapés & Drinks Reception

If you're having your ceremony at the hotel, your drinks and canapés follow afterwards. If you're getting married elsewhere, they'll be waiting for you and your guests when you arrive at Courtmacsherry.

Weather permitting, the reception can take place on the front lawn overlooking Courtmacsherry Bay. If the weather isn't with us, we simply move everything indoors to the front bar and reception area.

Guests are welcomed according to the wedding package you have chosen, with drinks and canapés served as everyone gathers and the celebrations get underway.

Your Wedding Meal

After drinks and canapés, your guests move into the Cork Tree Restaurant for the wedding meal. With original stone walls dating back to 1850, high ceilings, chandeliers and views across Courtmacsherry Bay, it's a beautiful setting for this part of the day.

Our kitchen team prepares your wedding menu using quality ingredients, with local produce used wherever possible. And we'll work with you on the menu ahead of the day.

Once the meal is finished, the celebrations can continue into the Seven Heads Bar for music and dancing, while the front bar remains available for guests who prefer somewhere quieter.

For a traditional seated wedding meal, we can accommodate up to 143 guests across the Cork Tree Restaurant and adjoining Front Bar.

Your Wedding Menu

Your wedding meal is a big part of the day, and we want the menu to feel right for you.

Our wedding menus offer a choice of dishes prepared by our kitchen team using quality ingredients, with local produce used wherever possible.

Our four self-catering cottages are a short walk from the hotel and offer comfortable accommodation for families or groups attending your wedding.

They're a handy option for guests who would like a little more space or who are staying for a few days around the wedding.

The Morning After

After a full wedding day, the next morning is a chance to slow things down.

Breakfast is served for hotel residents, giving family and friends a chance to catch up before heading home or continuing their stay in Courtnacsherry.

For couples staying with us, it's also a lovely chance to enjoy a quieter morning together – whether that's a walk through Courtnacsherry, some fresh air by the water, or simply taking your time over breakfast.

If you'd like to continue the celebrations the following day, talk to us and we can discuss the options available.
